

TAMA 2012 Elections-Election day rules

1. There will not be any speeches by the candidates on the day of the elections
2. The election will start at 2.00 pm and close at 5.00 pm Eastern time.
3. Only Government issued photo-IDs accepted for identification. No other form of IDs will be allowed. There will not be any exceptions.
4. Only one election agent from each candidate is permitted to observe during the election and counting process.
5. Candidates or supporters of candidates should not solicit voters in the line.
6. Election agents can raise objections to the Chairman of the Election Committee.
7. All eligible members who are standing in the line at 5.00 pm will be allowed to vote.
8. No one will be allowed to join the line for voting after 5.00 p.m.
9. Significant others with different last name other than register in the TAMA register, should establish positive proof of relationship.
10. In case of any deviations, the Election Committee Chairman's decision will be final.
11. People that cannot read or write English or Telugu will be assisted by the Election Committee.